Order of Prince Edward Island Recipients Announced

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, July 6, 2017 – The 2017 recipients of the Order of Prince Edward Island were announced today by the Chancellor of the Order, His Honour the Honourable H. Frank Lewis, Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island and Mr. Gerard Greenan, Chair of the Order of Prince Edward Island Advisory Council.

The three Islanders selected to receive the honour are:

Honourable Catherine S. Callbeck of Central Bedeque
Catherine Hennessey of Charlottetown and,
James Clement MacAulay of St. Peters Bay

These three individuals were selected from a total of 53 Islanders nominated to receive the award this year.

The honour was first conferred in 1996 as a means of recognizing those Islanders who have shown individual excellence or outstanding leadership in their community and in their chosen occupation or profession. It is the highest honour that can be accorded to a citizen of the Province. It is awarded annually following a public nomination process with recipients being selected by an independent nine-person Advisory Council each year. Insignia of the Order will be presented by the Lieutenant Governor at a special investiture ceremony in September at Government House, Charlottetown.
