

PREMIER
22-5-18
EA

No charges in P.E.I.'s e-gaming initiative, RCMP say

After extensive investigation, police find 'no evidence of criminality'

Shane Ross · CBC News · Posted: Apr 12, 2018 5:42 PM AT | Last Updated: April 12

No criminal charges will be laid in connection to the P.E.I. government's failed attempts from 2009-12 to become a regulator of online gambling, RCMP say. (Eugenio Marongiu/Shutterstock)

The RCMP will not be laying criminal charges after concluding their investigation into the P.E.I. government's 2009-12 e-gaming initiative.

"After an extensive investigation into allegations in relation to what was known as e-gaming, including conducting over 50 interviews, there was no evidence of criminality, or grounds to lay any charges," Staff-Sgt. Kevin Baillie said in an e-mail to CBC Wednesday.