ORDER OF
Prince Edward Island

2018

The Order of Prince Edward Island is the highest honour the province can bestow. It is the giving of public recognition to individual Islanders whose efforts and accomplishments truly have been exemplary. There are many citizens who make remarkable contributions to the social, economic and cultural life of our province and its people, and the Order of Prince Edward Island is a unique opportunity to honour them. The Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island is Chancellor of the Order of Prince Edward Island and confers the honour on not less than three people in an annual ceremony at Government House. The public nominates deserving individuals. An independent Advisory Council considers each nomination and makes final recommendations to the Premier as President of Executive Council.

Who is eligible to be considered for investiture in the Order?

Anyone presently living in Prince Edward Island, or a former long-term resident of the Province, is eligible to be considered for investiture in the Order. Elected federal and provincial representatives and members of the judiciary are not eligible for nomination while still holding office. Posthumous nominations are not accepted.

Can I nominate someone?

Any individual or organization can submit nominations for the Order of Prince Edward Island. If you know of someone who has shown individual excellence or outstanding leadership in the community, or in their chosen profession or occupation, this is your opportunity to have them considered for special honour and recognition. For further information, call 902-368-5970 or visit www.gov.pe.ca/opei. Nominations are received throughout the year, up until the annual deadline for the particular year.

Should I nominate someone?

The Order of Prince Edward Island has been established as a way of encouraging and acknowledging the outstanding achievements of individual citizens of the province. It is a special act of appreciation to nominate someone you believe is deserving of such an honour.

What does the recipient receive?

The Insignia of the Order of Prince Edward Island includes an impressive enameled medallion (Medal of Merit), which incorporates the Provincial Shield of Arms against a background of gold and blue, a stylized lapel pin and a miniature medal for less formal occasions. The Medal of Merit is worn with a ribbon of rust, green and white. Recipients of the Order also receive an official certificate and are entitled to use the letters O.P.E.I. after their names.

The Order of P.E.I. Advisory Council

The Order of Prince Edward Island Advisory Council is responsible for reviewing nominations received, recommending not less than three people for investiture each year and for other decisions relating to the operation of the OPEI Honours Program. The nine person council is comprised of two members from each county, the Chief Justice of Prince Edward Island, the President of the University of Prince Edward Island and the Clerk of Executive Council.
