

LaVie

17.11.16 my

Colin LaVie gives notice that he will ask the Minister responsible for Health and Wellness the following question:

If a person sees a specialist and is given a prescription for their medical condition, but would like a second opinion are they entitled to a second opinion from another specialist? Who approves the second opinion? If the other specialist is located off Island are the costs associated with that including travel covered by the Province?

Date Submitted: November 17, 2016