

NAME OF MEMBER: HAL PERRY

DATE OF PUBLIC DISCLOSURE: MAY 13, 2025

Purpose of Public Disclosure

As part of managing potential conflicts of interest, the Conflict of Interest Act requires public disclosure of Members' general financial standing while keeping specifics confidential to protect their personal lives. Information disclosed to the Commissioner during the private disclosure process is protected, confidential information, and is the basis for this public disclosure, under Section 26 of the Act.

Contents of the Public Disclosure

If applicable, the following public disclosure includes:

- the source and nature of income, assets and liabilities, excluding their value;
- the names of persons who have an interest in those assets and liabilities;
- the nature and subject of any contracts the Member has with the Government of Prince Edward Island;
- the names of affiliated companies or partnerships; and
- an account of gifts or benefits disclosed to the Commissioner [subsection 13(3)].

To protect Members' personal lives, the following information is not included in this public disclosure:

- income (from the past twelve months), assets or liabilities worth less than $5,000;
- residential or recreational properties owned by the Member or their family;
- personal property used primarily for transportation, household, educational, recreational, social or aesthetic purposes by the Member of their family;
- cash on hand, or in financial institutions;
- fixed value securities issued or guaranteed by a government or by a government agency;
- registered retirement savings plans (not self-administered), or a registered home ownership savings plan;
- an interest in a pension plan, employee benefit plan, annuity or life insurance policy;
- open-ended mutual funds with broad-based investments;
- a guaranteed investment certificate or similar financial instrument;
- family support payments; and
- any income, asset or liability the Commissioner approves as an excluded private interest.

Additional Reporting - Special Circumstance

If the Member also serves as a Minister and has the Commissioner's approval for an activity otherwise prohibited by the Act, the public disclosure will also include:

- a description of the activity;
- a description of how the Minister carried out the activity within the Commissioner's direction; and,
- if the activity is a business, a list of each person who has a minimum ten percent interest in the business, including their address and relationship to the Minister.
