Dear Madam Speaker:

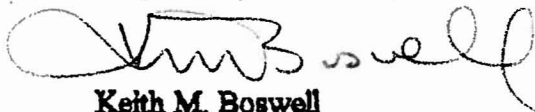

An Act to Amend the Legislative Assembly Act (1994) established an Indemnities and Allowances Commission. The Commission is required to report annually to the Speaker on or before the first day of December.

According to the Legislation, the Commission is to "review and determine" the remuneration and benefits to be paid to the Members of the Legislative Assembly, Ministers, the Speaker, Deputy Speaker, the Leader of the Opposition, Government House Leader, Opposition House Leader, Government Whip, Opposition Whip and the Leader of the Third Party.

The Commission has completed its review of the remuneration and benefits as defined in Section 46 of the Legislative Assembly Act.

Respectfully Submitted,

INTRODUCTION

A 1994 amendment to the Legislative Assembly Act established the Indemnities and Allowances Commission. This Commission, as mandated by Section 46(1), is to “review and determine the remuneration and benefits to be paid to the Members of the Legislative Assembly, Ministers, the Speaker, Deputy Speaker, the Leader of the Opposition, Government House Leader, Opposition House Leader, Leader of a Third Party, Government Whip and Opposition Whip”.

Remuneration and benefits are defined by the legislation to include “salaries, indemnities, allowances and pension benefits.”

As required by Section 46(6), the Commission meets “annually and at such other times as the Speaker may request, ... [to] carry out a review of remuneration and allowances ... and ... on or before the first day of December of each year deliver[s] a report to the Speaker which shall be final and binding.”

The Commission presented its eighth report to the Speaker in the fall of 2001; that report contained a 3.25% increase in Members’ indemnities and allowances.

In preparation for the 2002 report to the Speaker, the Commission placed advertisements in local newspapers in September inviting the general public to present its views on the remunerations of the members.

DEFINITIONS

In the sections that follow, "indemnities" refers to payments made to all Members of the Legislative Assembly to carry out their basic responsibilities as MLAs. These payments are taxable.

"Salaries" refers to payments that are made to Members of Executive Council, the Speaker, Deputy Speaker, Leader of the Opposition, Leader of a Third Party, and those other Members who hold special positions in the Legislative Assembly, or on Executive Council Committees. These payments are in addition to payments received by Members in the form of indemnities and are also taxable.

"Allowance" refers to additional monies paid to Members, such as MLA expense allowances and the mileage allowances. These payments are non-taxable.

MEMBERS INDEMNITIES AND ALLOWANCES

Table 1 indicates the current indemnities and (non-taxable) allowances for members in each of the Provinces as at October, 2001.

The Leader of the Opposition's salary is the same as a Cabinet Minister's in all Provinces except Ontario where it is 30% higher. The changes for the Premier, Cabinet Minister and Leader of the Opposition positions changed at the same rate as members' indemnities as per Table 1 in all other jurisdictions. British Columbia made no adjustment.

Table 3 indicates the current salaries for Speakers and Deputy Speakers in each of the Provinces as at October, 2002.

* The P.E.I. compensation used is the recommended amounts effective April 1, 2003.

The Commission has, in the past, compared public sector compensation for deputy ministers, clerks of the legislative assemblies, nurses and teachers in P.E.I. with their counterparts in other jurisdictions. The percentage of averages based on using the same jurisdictions as the above MLA comparison is as follows:

Deputy Ministers	- between 68% and 71%
Teachers	- between 82% and 85%
Nurses	- between 90% and 93%
Clerks	- 63%

Pension Plan

The Commission tabled with its 2001 report the combined plan text for the new pension plan introduced in 1994 and the supplemental plan introduced in 1996. This new plan is indexed at a rate of CPI to a maximum of 8% during the period when the member is on an active or deferred basis. When receiving benefits the indexation is CPI less 2%.

In its 2001 Report, the Commission noted that the previous pension plan, which was closed in 1994, was then indexed at a rate of CPI less 2%, both during the active/deferred basis and benefit period. To ease the administrative burden and to make the accruing benefit rate comparable for both plans, the Commission recommended in its 2001 Report that the previous pension plan which was closed in 1994 be amended retroactively to July 1, 1994, to match the current plan, that is, CPI to a maximum of 8% while deferred, and CPI less 2% while receiving benefits.

During the past year, the Commission has been considering other aspects of the pension plans in order to harmonize the eligibility and other provisions of the plans. The Commission anticipates that, during the next year, it will receive actuarial and other cost estimates of various changes to the plans to assist its review of possible changes in the future.

Third Party Leader

The Commission's decisions apply only to elected members of the Legislative Assembly. Accordingly, any reference to a Third Party Leader applies only upon his or her election to the Legislative Assembly.

Speaker, Deputy Speaker and Government House Leader

The Commission, as in previous years, has fixed the salary for the Speaker at a level which is 75% of a Cabinet Minister's salary. The Deputy Speaker's salary remains at a level of 50% of the Speaker's salary. Several Provinces fix the Speaker's salary at a level equal to that of a Cabinet Minister and the Commission will be investigating this matter further during the coming year.

The annual salary for the Government House Leader has not been adjusted this year. In 2001, this salary was increased to reflect that the position does not allow for remuneration for Executive Council Committee appointment.

Current Year Increase

The Commission is recommending a combined increase of approximately 3.25% for indemnities and allowances. This increase is in line with recent settlements reached with certain public service employee groups in the Province. The percentage increase for the allowance is somewhat greater than that applicable to indemnities, having regard to additional constituency duties following the change to single member districts in 1996. The percentage increase for annual salaries is 2.5%.
